3. TERM.

All-Inclusive Plan: The term of the Agreement runs concurrent with the Tenant’s lease. The Property Owner may not terminate this Agreement during a lease agreement for the Property. The Broker may terminate this Agreement upon at least 30 days advance written notice to the Property Owner.

Full-Service or Investor Plans: Either party hereto may terminate this Agreement upon at least 30 days advance written notice to the other party; provided, however, that Property Owner may not terminate this Agreement within the first six (6) months of the effective date of a lease agreement for the Property. If there are multiple properties listed on Exhibit A, a Property may not be removed from management during the first six (6) months of a lease agreement for the Property.

4. AUTHORITY AND POWERS. Property Owner hereby grants Broker the authority and power, at Property Owner’s expense, to undertake the following activities on his, her or its behalf with respect to each Property listed on Exhibit A:

(a) ADVERTISING/LEASING. Broker will work diligently to procure qualified tenants at fair market rents through standard and customary practices. Property Owner agrees that any advertising or leasing expenses incurred at the direction of the Property Owner are the responsibility of Property Owner and shall be reimbursed to Broker. Broker will work on behalf of the Property Owner. Property Owner hereby authorizes Broker, as its agent, to execute, negotiate, and sign a lease agreement with tenant on behalf of Property Owner and in the name of Property Owner. It is understood and agreed that this property will be rented in accordance with Fair Housing Laws without regard to race, religion, sex, disability, familial status, color or national origin, or any other class protected by law. Broker shall use commercially reasonable efforts to keep the Property rented. However, Broker does not guarantee the payment of rent by the tenant, but will use commercially reasonable efforts to collect such payments when and as they become due.

(b) TENANT EVICTION. Property Owner hereby authorizes Broker, as its agent and at its expense, to sign and serve, in Property Owner’s name, notices that are required or appropriate; commence and prosecute actions to evict tenants and recover possession of the premises, retain legal counsel on behalf of Property Owner to proceed with eviction in the event of non-payment; recover possession of the Property in Property Owner’s name; recover rents and other sums due and, when expedient, settle, compromise and release claims, actions and suits and/or reinstate tenancies. The funds shall be held in a trust account separate from Broker's personal accounts. Broker shall not be liable in event of bankruptcy or failure of a financial institution. Broker will hold security deposits received pursuant to paragraph 4(h) above in a separate trust account for the benefit of the tenants. Broker shall not be liable for tenant damages, including unpaid rent, which exceeds the security deposit. Key Details and Explanations

Management Fee – The management fee is charged for any part of a month with the unit occupied. For new properties the management fee is charged on the 1st calendar day of the month following when a property is posted for rent. (For example, a property posted for rent on January 20th would be charged a management fee on February 1). If a tenant’s lease starts during the same month that a property is posted for rent, then the management fee would be charged for that full month without proration. (For example, a property is posted for rent on January 10th and a tenant moves in on January 25th, then a full management fee would be charged for January).

Enhanced Marketing Plan – Broker utilizes professional real estate photography for all properties. This plan adds on the preparation of professional floor plans and walk-through videos of the property.

Tenant Placement Fee – The fee (Full-Service & Investor Plans) is $750 per tenant placement. Broker earns this fee upon collection of a non-refundable deposit from an incoming tenant.

Lease Renewal Fee (Full-Service Plan Only) – The fee is charged upon the tenant signing a lease renewal with a term of at least 6 months in length.

Rent Ready Package – In order to properly prepare a home for a tenant, Broker (at a minimum) hires a locksmith to change the locks, has a regular cleaning performed, has any carpets cleaned and sends out a handyman to perform a rent ready checklist which normally takes 3 to 4 hours to complete. For properties on the All-Inclusive Plan, Broker will pay up to $130 towards a locksmith, $150 for home cleaning, $150 for carpet cleaning and $350 towards a handyman and supplies. For properties on the Full Service and Investors Plans, the owner would be responsible for the actual costs of these bills.

Eviction Coordination Fee – (Full-Service plan only) Broker charges a $200 administrative fee to coordinate the eviction process with PMC’s attorney.

Property Close-out Fee – (Full-Service plan only), Broker charges a $250 administrative fee to close out a property when the property owner terminates the management relationship for a property.

Additional Fees and Charges

The following additional fees are charged to owners:

- Broker shall be entitled to retain 50% of Late Fees as additional compensation for the additional time and expenses of collecting the delinquent rental payment. Late fee will be levied at Broker's discretion.
- For hot water heaters changed by PMC's handyman, there will be an additional $150 one-time fee in addition to the hourly rates.
- $75 for coordination of a service visit or second opinion by vendor of Property Owner's choice (non-PMC vendor)
- $75 for coordination of a service visit by a Home Warranty Company
- If Property Owner does not give a 30-day notice to terminate at least 30 days prior to a current tenant's lease expiration date, Property Owner to pay a $250 fee as compensation for Broker's efforts to plan rent ready/turnover efforts. This fee is also payable when a property is vacant (between tenants and before first tenant).
- 10% of estimated bill cost for repairs/replacement performed by Property Owner, Owner's vendor or Home Warranty Company
- $75 to send a "non-renewal" notice to tenants at Property Owner's request

Exhibit D – Pet Protection Guarantee

Broker provides all Property Owners with a Pet Protection Guarantee. Broker will pay for damage, above fair wear and tear, up to $5,000 per property.

The tenant and pet(s) must be screened and approved by the Broker during the initial leasing process and they must be signed to Broker's lease. This coverage does not cover damage caused by assistance animals, or by illegal pets that were not approved on the lease.

If it is necessary to replace flooring (or other fixture/appliance) due to pet damage, Broker will only cover the cost of replacement with a similar product. If Property Owner wishes to upgrade, Property Owner will responsible for the cost differential for the upgraded product.

When a claim is made under this program, Broker retains the right to pursue the tenant in collections for the right to recoup the cost of the damages. Broker will retain all pet fees paid by tenants to support the costs of this guarantee.

If a Management Agreement is terminated prior to the end of a tenant's lease, Broker is relieved of any obligation to pay for property damages. If a Management Agreement is terminated concurrently with the end of a lease, Broker will pay for pet damages only if PMC coordinates the damage repair.

Exhibit E – Smoke and Carbon Detector Risk

Fire and carbon safety and liability is a significant issue with rental homes. Broker believes that all rental properties should be in compliance with the International Fire Code (ICC IFC). Most homes built in the last 20 years are in compliance with the code. Generally, homes built pre-2000 are not in compliance unless they have been brought up to code in recent years. It generally cost between $600 and $900 to bring a Property up to code.

Property Owner will need to choose if they wish to bring their property into compliance with the International Fire Code. If an owner does not wish to incur this cost, Broker charges a $15 per month per door risk fee in addition to the standard management fee.

- If the Property is not in compliance with the International Fire Code, Property Owner authorizes Broker to bring the property into compliance.
- If the Property is not in compliance with the International Fire Code, Property Owner declines to bring the Property into compliance and wishes to pay Broker a $15 per month risk fee in addition to the standard management fee. Property Owner shall indemnify, defend and hold Broker harmless from all loss, damage, cost expense (including attorneys' fees), liability, claims, investigations and lawsuits brought against Broker relating to their property not being in compliance with the International Fire Code. Property Owner also recognizes that a tenant may request the local government to revoke a Certificate of Occupancy for not being in compliance with the International Fire Code, and if the Certificate of Occupancy is revoked, the tenant may terminate the Lease for cause and without penalty causing significant financial harm to the Property Owner.
